Scope and Contents of the Collection:

This collection consists of photographs of Nashville and Davidson County between 1994 and 1997. Most of the collection is made up of photographs, but the collection also contains some maps, postcards, and collages of various locations. The photographs in this collection depict businesses, churches, homes, government buildings, museums, schools, parks and tourist destinations in Davidson County and Nashville. In addition to the photographs, each neighborhood or location has a Trav-Guide Field Form that briefly describes most of the photos. Much of what was photographed in this collection is no longer there and this collection reflects the ongoing and rapid development in Nashville and Davidson County.
