

John Lawrence Connelly Collection

1683-2002

Collection Summary:

Title: John Lawrence Connelly Collection

Summary: Personal papers and other historical materials belonging to John Lawrence Connelly

Physical Description: 24 linear feet

Language: English

Stack Location: MSS-

Repository: Metropolitan Government Archives of Nashville & Davidson County, 615 Church Street, Nashville, TN 37219

Biographical/Historical Note: John Lawrence Connelly (1928-2011), son of John Neely Connelly and Thelma Hammon Connelly, was reared in North Nashville, where he graduated from North Nashville High School. He continued his education at Middle Tennessee State University, and George Peabody College for Teachers in Nashville. In 1953, he married Edyth Inez Dickens (1935-2005), a teacher at North Nashville High School. His teaching positions included East Nashville High School, George Peabody College for Teachers, and Aquinas Junior College. His passion for history led him to serve on the Metro Historical Commission, to organize the first Oktoberfest in Germantown, and to organize the Friends of the Metro Archives. He contributed to the column "Historically Speaking" in Nashville newspapers, and authored books on Germantown, North Nashville, and Monroe Street United Methodist Church, where he was a lifelong member.

Scope and Content: This collection consists of the personal papers and assorted historical materials belonging to John Lawrence Connelly – educator, historian, author and preserver of Nashville history. The personal papers include records of Connelly's family roots and the places he lived, met people, and served, including North Nashville (Germantown), South Nashville, and East Nashville areas.
