

I John Conelron of Davidson County State of Tennessee being in Perfect State of Health and of sound Mind & Memory Pleased by Almighty Gods for the same, but considering the frailty and uncertainty of Human life have thought proper to make and Publish this my last Will & Testament, in manner and form following, That is to say

First I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife Mary Conelron all the Western Part of the Tract of Land whereon I now live and which is bounded as follows, to wit, beginning at a Stone Corner on Genl. Jacksons Western Boundary line and the Eastern Boundary of my old Tract of Land at Genl Jacksons Gate running Thence South Seventy Seven degrees West to the Corner of the Orchard Fence, Thence the same Course along the Fence and so on to Saw burn and Iron wood on the Bank of the Long Pond, Thence up the same along the Bank Forty Poles to two white oaks, and thence South Seventy Seven degrees West crossing the Long Pond, one Hundred and Sixteen Poles, to a Red Locust on the Bank of Cumberland River. Thence up the same to the old corner a white oak and Red oak above the Road Thence along the old Line to the beginning, containing by measurement Seven Hundred & Sixteen Acres, I give and bequeath this Tract of Land to my beloved wife for and during her Natural Life, and after her death the said Tract of Land is to go to my ~~beloved~~ son Stokely, It is my will that my son Stokely should have now or at any time hereafter, occupy and have Possession of the Big Spring and all the Plantations to the West of said Spring also the Lots down the Big Spring Branch, It is my Will
