Language: English

Stack Location: MSS-7-2, MSS-7-3

Repository: Metropolitan Government Archives of Nashville & Davidson County, 615 Church Street, Nashville, TN, 37219.

Scope and Content: This collection contains approximately 200 items belonging to Walter Heckman, Jr., including paper items, scrapbooks, publications, audio materials, photographs, and assorted memorabilia. Items in this collection pertain to Heckman's career as an air traffic controller, the FAA, and the CAA, Nashville history and government, junior high and high school, Heckman's organizational memberships, and personal items.

Paper items include American Airlines accident reports, building plans, ATC newsletters, brochures, event programs, maps, charts, invoices, FAA/CAA guidelines and manuals, city planning documents, clippings, and newspapers. Newspapers (1877-2000) include the New York Tribune, The Tennessean, and the Nashville Banner, and contain articles and headlines regarding events of historical significance, the centennial anniversary of the Battle of Nashville, and stories featuring the Nashville Airport. Also included are newspapers from Cavert Junior High School's Newsreel (1936-1937) and West End High School's The West Wind (1938-1941).

Scrapbooks (c. 1930s-1950s) include collections of news clippings regarding the history of aviation and sports.

Publications include books and magazines regarding the history of Vanderbilt University, the American Legion, and Nashville music, as well as several Nashville telephone directories (1935-1943).

Audio materials include several reel-to-reel recordings of audio training programs for aviation and air traffic control guidelines.

Photographs include aviation-related photos such as landing accidents, the Nashville Tower, air shows, aerial views, ATC meetings, and Air Force planes (1926-1981). Other photographs include an autographed photo of Tommy Dorsey (c. 1938), a photo of Douglas Fairbanks and Mary Pickford (1931?), and a photograph of a ceremony for the first electric car in Nashville (1889).

Memorabilia includes items related to Nashville history and community, such as Nashville Boosters banners and ribbons, ticket stubs and local business cards, political buttons, posters, and flyers. Other items in this collection aviation-related memorabilia such as map overlays, school-related memorabilia, and personal memorabilia such as handwritten poems from Mary A. McIntosh (date unknown).

Biographical/Historical Note: Born March 8, 1921, Walter Waring Heckman, Jr. worked for the City of Nashville at the Air Traffic Control Tower at Berry Field. Heckman graduated from West End High School in 1939, and was later admitted to Vanderbilt University before beginning his career. He married Mary Kathryn Scarborough in 1943. Beginning his career in 1941, Heckman began his work at the Nashville Tower, and became a Federal employee with the Civil Aeronautics Administration a year later. He also served the Knoxville Tower, and later Served in the Army Air Corps during World War II in Port Moresby, New Guinea and Brisbane, Australia. Heckman was active in the American Legion and served as Commander of the Belle Meade Post 45, as well as the 6th District Commander and Chairman of the Davidson County Chapter. In addition, he was a member of the Antique Automobile Club of America (AACA), the Calvary United Methodist Church, the West Nashville Kiwanis, and the West High Lunch Group. As a supporter of local history, Heckman lobbied for the preservation of Union Station and the Andrew Jackson Hotel and appeared on local NPT programs regarding the history of aviation and baseball in Nashville. Heckman died June 26, 2009.
