Repository: Metropolitan Government Archives of Nashville-Davidson County, 615 Church Street, Nashville, TN 37219

Historical Note:

The Davidson County Election Commission is regulated by State of Tennessee law and funded by Metropolitan Nashville government. The mission of the Davidson County Election Commission is to provide federal, state, and local election products to eligible citizens of Davidson County so they can have equal access to the election process and can exercise their right to vote.

Scope and Contents of the Collection:

This collection contains administrative records, election data, and district maps from the Davidson County Election Commission. Materials date between 1940 and 2002, with most materials dating between 1962 and 1984. A significant amount of this collection is dedicated to election data from 1950 to 1984, and includes election results, vote analysis reports, candidate lists, advertising, and information regarding absentee voting.

The Election Commission Records also contain a significant number of maps of the different councilmanic districts and voting precincts in Davidson County. These maps date largely between 1968 and 2002, and document district changes in the metropolitan Nashville area over time.

Arrangement:

This collection is arranged alphabetically into three series: Administration, Elections, and Maps.

The Administration series includes correspondence, reports, meeting notes and minutes, and other materials relating to the day-to-day operations of the Davidson County Election Commission. Most materials date between 1970 and 1980.

The Elections series contains materials relating to elections held in Davidson County between 1950 and 1984. Materials include audited and unaudited election results, vote analyses, candidate lists, and advertising related to each election. This series is arranged chronologically by election date.

The Maps series includes a large number of councilmanic district and voting precinct maps, most dating between 1960 and 1990, with some district and precinct maps from 2001-2002. This series also contains maps of Goodlettsville, Berry Hill, and Belle Meade, as well as State House and Senate maps.
